

Thomas Jefferson said that he would rather have a country without a government, than a country without a free press. Don't let this happen! I have worked in broadcasting for over 20 years, and the implications of this measure will ruin the industry.

Charles McDonald